3. His First Flight

1. Why was the seagull afraid to fly?

Ans: The seagull was afraid to fly because it was his first flight. It is a well-known fact that doing something for the first time is challenging. In the same way, the young seagull feared of falling and getting hurt. He thought that his wings would not support him while flying.

2. What compelled the young seagull to finally fly?

Ans: The young seagull was very hungry. It was his hunger that ultimately compelled him to fly. Not being able to resist or control its hunger any longer, it dived at the fish in its mother's beak. At that moment his hunger overpowered his fear of the great expanse of the sea beneath the cliff. In this way, he made his first flight.

3. Why did the seagull's father and mother threaten him and cajole him to fly?

Ans: Seagull's parents had tried everything but he was reluctant to fly due to fear of falling down. He looked at his brothers and sister but wouldn't make any efforts. That is why the whole family had left him alone and threatened and cajoled him to come but every effort went in vain.

4. Why did the young seagull feel miserable on the ledge?

Ans: The young seagull felt miserable on the ledge as he was alone and his family had already flown away. He was feeling very hungry and had nothing to eat. His condition was worsening and he was unable to dive at the fish which was in his mother's beak.
